- April 03, 2014—Jugalbandi by Kathak exponent Pt Birju Maharaj & renowned percussionist Sivamani

Kolkata, 11th March, 2014: Emami Group, the Rs 6000 cr leading business conglomerate headquartered in Kolkata, is all set to add a zing to the evenings of Kolkata by hosting a series of cultural programs catering to the art aficionados of the city. As a steadfast & passionate patron for arts, culture and performing artists, Emami Group will host three back-to-back events in Kolkata at Kalamandir Auditorium.

The cultural extravaganza will begin with music recital by world renowned sufi qawwali singers, Sabri Brothers on 18th March, 2014. The team of two brothers Aftab Sabri and Hashim Sabri will enchant the audience with soulful and impassioned renditions of sufi and popular Bollywood numbers like Malang Malang, Pee loo, Tere naal, Teri jawaani mast mast, Main Hoo Na & Tere naam.

On 19th and 20th March, 2014, Emami Group will bring home Pulitzer Prize winning American playwright Arthur Miller's play, Death of a Salesman, starring theatre doyens Alyque Padamsee and Sabira Merchant. The play will be staged by Raell Padamsee's Ace Production in special arrangement with Dramatists Play Services, Inc., New York.

A rare jugalbandi by Kathak maestro Pandit Birju Maharaj & renowned percussionist Sivamani on 3rd April, 2014 will draw curtains to the 3-event cultural extravaganza organized by Emami Group. In this concert, the living legend Pt. Birju Maharaj will set the stage on fire with the pulsating rhythms and sounds of percussionist Sivamani in a spectacular confluence of instrumental and dancing virtuosity.

Speaking on the upcoming springtime cultural extravaganza, Mrs. Priti A Sureka, Director, Emami Group said, “Kolkata has a rich tradition of art and culture and Emami Group has always patronized Indian artistic tradition. The upcoming three events reiterate our commitment towards promotion of cultural legacy and varied artistic sensibilities. It will offer rare moments to be cherished and treasured for the rest of our lives. While the concert by Sabri Brothers will present a transcending mystic experience, the staging of Death of a Salesman will offer a taste of the best of modern drama. The finale with the scintillating jugalbandi by Pt Birju Maharaj and Sivamani will intermingle tradition with the contemporary.”
