Kolkata, January 2021: Kolkata Centre for Creativity is organizing Emerging Artist performance with Ankita Duttagupta, a contemporary and Indian classical dancer, performer and teacher. Her performance at the event goes by the name "I AM", an evening of past and present explorations in movement presented as a journey. The performance will be followed by a discussion with Kathakali Jana and the program will be held at Kolkata Centre for Creativity from 18:30 - 20:00 pm on Saturday 9th January, 2021.

A senior repertoire member of Sapphire Creations Dance company for the past twelve years now, Ankita has travelled nationally and internationally with performances in various prestigious festivals and other platforms. She was also a part of Sapphire's Indo Israel Production "Holi" choreographed by Israeli Choreographer Idan Cohen and have performed across the country as well as in Israel. Ankita is trained in improvisation technique and text body work by Christopher Lechner and Michel Casanovas (Switzerland), also in contemporary dance by Roger Sinha (Canada) as part of Sapphire international choreographers residency program.

Her performance 'I AM' depicts the human search for validation, an identity that would describe us as a person, a briefing that would explain the end result about the benefit, about the recognition. With a conflict of thoughts and questions of existence, KCC invites you to an enthralling evening of past and present explorations in movement presented as a journey!
